The combined annual income shall be based on adding together the income received during the preceding calendar year, without regard to whether a tax return is actually filed, by (i) owners of the dwelling who use it as their principal residence, (ii) owners' relatives who live in the dwelling, except for those relatives living in the dwelling and providing bona fide caregiving services to the owner whether such relatives are compensated or not, and (iii) nonrelatives of the owner who live in the dwelling except for bona fide tenants or bona fide caregivers of the owner, whether compensated or not, shall not exceed eighteen thousand (18,000.00) dollars per year; provided that the first four thousand ($4,000.00) dollars of annual income of each relative/nonrelative, other than the spouse of the owner, shall not be included in such totals; and

2. That the net combined financial worth, including equitable interests, of the owners and of the spouse of any owner, excluding the value of the dwelling and the land upon which it sits, not exceeding one acre, does not exceed sixty thousand ($60,000.00) dollars as of the 31st day of December of the immediately preceding calendar year, and through the taxable year to which such exemption is to apply.

B. The person or persons claiming such exemptions shall file annually, after the (1st) day of January but not later than the fifteenth day of February, with the Commissioner of Revenue of Pittsylvania County, Virginia, or such other agent or officer as may be designated by the commissioner, on forms supplied by the County, an Affidavit setting forth the names of related persons occupying the real estate for which the exemption is claimed, their total combined net worth, including equitable interests and the combined income from all sources of all persons specified. The application deadline may be extended on the approval of the Commissioner of Revenue, if the applicant is applying for the exemption for the first time or in cases of hardship, and if proper application is made along with a sworn affidavit that failure to apply by the fifteenth day of February was due to reasons beyond the applicant's control. D. The fact that persons who are otherwise qualified for tax exemption are residing in hospitals, nursing homes, convalescent homes, or other facilities for physical or mental care for extended periods of time shall not be construed to mean that the real estate for which tax exemption or deferral is sought does not continue to be the sole dwelling of such person during such extended periods of other residence so long as such real estate is not used by or leased to others for consideration.
